

Invitation to the XXII Fira de la Olive.

The Caimari Olive Fair is the result of an entire town that lives and works the land, a land that donates its fruits that we all take advantage of, as our poetess says.

Locals and visitors celebrate the fair, valuing the importance of preserving traditions and reliving ancient works and crafts.

The celebration and it's people keeps their eyes open to the future, incorporating new initiatives and actions to promote and enrich the economic and social activity of this area.

The XXII edition of the fair brings news like new cultural proposals, such as the creation of the Caparrots Carboners, the I Vila de Caimari International Photography Contest, the Painters Meeting and the recognition of the essential contribution of women to work, crafts from the countryside and home.

With great enthusiasm, a good group of caimariences and caimarienques work hard and make the fira cozy for everyone. This is the spirit that surrounds the fira and we would like it to reach everyone who makes it possible and those who visit us with great gratitude.
